TRINHIAN

PUBLISHED BY THE

TRINITY HIGH SCHOOL

TRINITY, NORTH CAROLINA

1945

Foreword

In this, the second publication of the "Trinhian," we have endeavored to picture our school life as we lived it this year. Our aim is to show others what we have accomplished as well as to keep these memories in written form; so that in years to come we may relive these happy days. We hope that this annual will prove a satisfaction to all the students who read its pages; we hope, too, that you will be proud with us of the accomplishments in our school during 1944-45 as recorded on these pages.

Mr. R. H. Abernathy

DEDICATION

To our Principal, who came to us when we needed him most and whose encouragement and faith in us helped us and made our school life seem more worth while, we thankfully dedicate the 1945 Trinhian.

In Memoriam

Mr. Henry C. Royals, father of Doris Royals, class of '45, who met death in a tragic automobile accident July 19, 1944.

For a number of years, Mr. Royals was a loyal and influential member of our local school board. We can not estimate the value of his good judgment and sound advice, but we know its influence will live on through the years.

Trinity School lay close to Mr. Royals' heart and we deeply appreciate having had such a true friend.

He's gone, we do not understand
We only know
That as he turned to go and waved his hand
In his eyes a sudden glory shone,
And we were dazzled by a sunset glow—
And he was gone.

Class History

September 4th, 1940! To some this was just the beginning of another year of school, but to the eighty boys and girls who wandered around in the hall looking for the eighth grade rooms of Miss Jennings and Mr. Wall, it was something new and exciting and very puzzling. This was our first day of high school! We couldn't understand how the other students seemed to take for granted changing classes and all the new things that go with high school and seem so difficult to starry-eyed Freshmen.

Later, when we became more organized we elected officers. They were: President, Richard Fields; Vice President, Jack Hall; Secretary and Treasurer, Dorothy Rimmer. Miss Jennings left during the year to be married and was replaced by Miss Louise Heed. As entertainment we gave a Christmas party at Blair Club.

The following year found us Sophomores. We were divided between the rooms of Mrs. Clarke, Miss Heed and Mrs. Knootz. As class officers we elected: President, Larson Davis; Vice President, H. S. Spencer; Secretary and Treasurer, Faye Steed. This year our class gave a picnic at Wheatmore Park.

Another year went by, we became Juniors and were assigned to the home rooms of Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Ivey. Our officers for the preceding year had served so well that Larson Davis, H. S. Spencer and Faye Steed were reelected as President, Vice President and Secretary. Dorothy Rimmer was elected treasurer. This proved to be a busy year. Marshals were selected, class rings ordered and Mrs. Ivey's room representative in the popularity contest, Lucille Everhart, was chosen "Miss Trinity". The highlight of the year was the Junior-Senior Banquet held April 28th, at the Emerywood Country Club.

The fall of '44 came like a thunder-bolt and with it the realization of our long cherished dream. Seniors at last! Thirty-three girls and twenty-three boys entered the senior room of Mrs. Gurney Peace. A careful selection of officers was made. We chose: Larson Davis as President, H. S. Spencer as Vice President, Doris Royals as Secretary and Colleen Parks as Treasurer. During the fall we enjoyed a weiner roast and hamburger fry at the Archdale Methodist Hut. A football team was organized for the first time in a few years with many members of the class playing on the team. Our representative in the popularity contest, Colleen Parks, won the title "Harvest Queen". Stationery and Christmas cards were sold by the seniors. Christmas came and Mrs. Peace gave us a party at the Home Economics building. Then came the new year and time to choose the Annual staff. Dorothy Rimmer was elected editor-in-chief and the following were chosen as members of the staff: Business manager, Larson Davis; circulation manager, Braxton Elliott; sports editors, Colleen Parks and H. S. Spencer; advertising manager, Dorothy Jean Coltrane; feature editor, Doris Royals; class editor, Jewell Pless; snapshots, Janie Tuttle; activity editor, Bessie Reddick; managing editor, Levonne Douglas; production manager, Nancy Sheppard; typists, Mildred Davis and Maxine Hill. Pictures have been made for the Annual, invitations, calling cards, caps and gowns selected. Our class flower, white carnation and our class colors blue and white, chosen. Now with "Happiness our aim; Success our goal" we are looking forward to the time when we shall stand, with our diplomas in our hands, on the open road of life.

Doris Royals,
Class Historian.

Class Prophecy

Trinity, North Carolina,
June 1, 1955.

Dear Mrs. Peace:

Today, as I thumbed through the pages of an old Trinhian published ten years ago, I noticed a picture of you along with the members of the Senior Class. Seeing it, I remembered that you were once our supervisor and I thought perhaps you would like to know what had become of the class of '45.

As I was out driving last week who should "zoom" past me in his '55 Buick at rate of 150 M. P. H. but Sam White. He has finally conquered his old ambition but his new ambition is 200 M. P. H. (Well, happy landings, Sam.)

Mrs. Peace, you remember Larson Davis who was president of our class for three successive years? Well, he is now president of the American National Bank. Billy Summey is vice president and Novella Barker and Maxine Hill are their very efficient secretaries.

There has been a slight alteration in the "swoon" business. It seems the boys "swoon" now when Singer Colleen Parks "croons".

You never pass Dorothy Coltrane's home unless you hear someone playing the piano. Business is good; she has fifty piano pupils.

Out in Hollywood a movie is being made of Novelist Robert Roger's book, the best seller of '55. Starring in the picture is Nancy Shore and directing it is none other than Cecil Bobby DeMille Scoggins. Bernadine Spoon is a success as a model in New York.

Perhaps you read in the paper that Levonne Douglas, famous artist, has just been asked to paint a portrait of the President. While she's in the nation's capital I hope she gets to see Grace McKenzie and Adreinne Overcash. It seems they're tangled in the government's red tape.

A new beauty shop has been opened called the "Make You Pretty" Salon. I decided to pay it a visit the other day and who should I find to be the owner but Nancy Sheppard. Her beauticians are Emma Mae Hill, Louise Comer, Doris Croker and Margaret McGee.

Trinity is really getting to be quite a town. We even have a newspaper the "Trinity Flash" edited by Thurman Duncan. Reporters are Leon Reddick and Kimball Smith. Betty Myers and Carolyn Beeson own the two dress shops. Garland Jones runs the "Corner Drug" and H. S. Spencer controls the Trinity-Archdale Airport. Elmer Simpson is school principal and Bessie Reddick and Wilma Croker are teachers. Audrey Riley has charge of the school cafeteria. There has been a 50 per cent increase in absentees. (I wonder why!)

Living blissfully in a state of matrimony are. Janie Tuttle, Faye Steed, Margaret Bundy, Cecil Hill, Bill Aldridge, Albert Gross, Thomas Cumby, Harold Fowler, Dorothy Rimmer, Evadeen Biggs, Dorothy Parish and Braxton Elliott.

A rather amusing incident occurred the other day. A stranger in town cut his hand rather bad and rushed over to what he thought was the hospital. As it happened it was a hospital but a Dog and Cat hospital run by Veterinarian Richard Snyder. Richard was kind enough to direct him to the city hospital where Drs. Elwin Hughes and Ray Underwood took charge. I understand he's still there for after seeing the nurses, Jewell Pless, Effie Lee Sumner, Aline Emory and Ruth Sumner they couldn't make him leave!

Lucille Everhart has just set a new world's record in the national swimming contest. Jacqueline Yates and Eulene Wright are coaches of girls basketball teams. I hear their girls are champions.

John Perry has his dad's old job as post-master of Archdale Post Office; Joseph Hill is farming.

As for myself, I am finally fulfilling my ambition to travel. Next week I am going abroad for several months.

Well, Mrs. Peace, I guess that's the latest news up to now. Here's wishing you the best of everything and hoping to visit you when I return.

Cordially,
Doris Royals,
Class Prophet.

P. S. I hope everyone takes this just as I mean it — all in fun.

THE BETA CLUB

The Beta Club has been very active during the year.

The club meets one night each month usually at the home of some member. A program and business session are followed by a social hour—all of which is planned by the host or hostess.

The club is sponsoring several projects for the year.

1. Care of library. The members are assigned to work at the desk each period of the day to issue and check in books. They also assist in other duties—such as mending books, taking inventory, filing clippings, and checking shelves.

2. Scrap paper drive. Each member is appointed to a certain room to collect the waste note book paper and tie it into bundles. The pupils are also asked to bring scrap paper of all kinds from home.

3. Selling War Stamps. War Stamps are sold by members each Wednesday before school. More than one thousand have been sold up to date.

4. Honor Roll. Two members are in charge of putting the names of honor students on the Honor Roll Poster after each grading period.

Through the cooperation of each member these projects are being carried out successfully.

Much praise and appreciation is extended to Mr. R. H. Abernethy, whose energy and time has been given so freely and willingly in helping to organize Trinity's football team. Through his untiring efforts and the boys' eagerness to work, the team was organized in the latter part of October, 1944, and went through the '44 season undefeated. Since this was their first year in football for a number of years, we are proud of the boys and have faith that the ones to follow will do just as well. With the example these boys have made for them and Mr. Abernathy as coach, we have no doubts as to their success.
